SRI K. VINAYAKAM : ' Is it a fact '. என்று ஆரம்பித்துக் கேட்கலாம். (Mr. Speaker rose.) I shall explain it, Sir. It is a well known parliamentary practice in every democratic State and in the Mother of Parliaments that even if a Member is not willing to ask a question, he can indirectly let in answer and preface it with the words ' Is it not a fact '. It has been allowed by the predecessor of the Hon. Speaker, by all Hon. Speakers of our State, of other States, of the Lok Sabha and by the Speaker of the Parliament in England.

MR. SPEAKER : I am not aware of the period when Sri K. Vinayakam was in the Parliament of England. But in the state of things as they stand at present, what I have said is correct.
